

Tiffany Russell

Donna Davis

Dennis Huserik

Michael Paul

Dr. Magha Dissanayake

Dr. John LeBow

Dr. Larry Myers

PEOPLE

Oregon Metro Federal Credit Union has named Tiffany Russell as assistant branch manager at the Springfield office at 2355 Olympic St. Russell has worked for the credit union for four years. Also, Oregon Metro has appointed Donna Davis as assistant branch manager for the Oakridge office. Davis has been with the credit union for 10 years.

Kevin Davis, manager of the Papé Bros. Inc. Medford store, has been promoted to general manager for Southern Oregon and Northern California. Davis has worked for Eugene-based Papé since 1985. Bruce Boggs is departing his position as associate director of Eugene-based Rural Initiatives Inc. to take a newly created post as program manager for community-based conservation with The Nature Conservancy's Center for Compatible Economic Development in Leesburg, Va.

Dennis Huserik has been promoted to executive vice president at Eugene-based Centennial Bank and will manage the credit administration division. Previously, Huserik managed the bank's southern region, which included Centennial's banking offices in Eugene, Springfield and Cottage Grove. Also, Centennial has appointed Michael Paul to the position of senior vice president and manager of the downtown Portland commercial banking center that Centennial is planning. Paul comes to Centennial from Key Bank, where he was senior vice president and team leader of corporate banking and finance in Portland.

Three physicians have been appointed to the medical staff at Sacred Heart Medical Center in Eugene.

Magha Dissanayake is an internist with the Medical Center for Lane County, located in Springfield. After working in medicine in Sri Lanka and Britain, Dissanayake served a three-year residency in internal medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Health System before coming to Lane County.

John LeBow is a family physician with PeaceHealth Medical Group's Marcola Road clinic. He comes to the Eugene-Springfield area from Aurora, Colo., where he had been in private family practice for 10 years.

Larry Myers is a family physician in practice with Junction City Medical Clinic. Previously, he served two years as assistant professor at the Medical College of Wisconsin.

KUDOS

The Fanconi Anemia Research Fund has elected the following officers: Mary Ellen Eiler, president; Dave Frohnmaier, vice president; Barry Rubenstein, secretary-treasurer. Also, Vicky Anton-Athens and Peter von Hippel were re-elected to serve on the board of directors. The fund fosters research to develop a cure for Fanconi anemia.

F.Y.I.

Kathy LaMontagne has moved her business, K.J.L. Interior Design, to 1200 High St., Suite 110, Eugene.

Tony and Delaine Baker have opened Monroe R.V. Park at Orchard and Highway 99 West in Monroe. The park has 13 spaces, all with services. The phone number is (541) 302-8499.

Families in Good Company, a public-private partnership, is taking applications for its annual award that honors Oregon employers with family-friendly business practices. Companies, nonprofit groups and government agencies are encouraged to apply.

Winners will be recognized for policies such as flexible work arrangements, work-family programs, child-care and elder-care assistance, and investment in community programs for children and education.

For an application, call Children First for Oregon, which organizes the Families in Good Company award program, at (800) 544-0376, or visit the group's Web site at www.familiesingoodcompany.org, and print out an employer application form.

The deadline for applications is March 26. Applications will be judged by representatives from the Society of Human Resource Management Association, county commissions on children and families and PGE, this year's sponsor. Winners will be announced May 6.

Business Beat runs Tuesdays and Thursdays. The column covers promotions, new hires, professional achievements, new businesses, relocations and other news. Fax items to Business Beat, 683-7631, or mail them to Business Beat, The Register-Guard, P.O. Box 10188, Eugene, OR 97440. If you send a photograph and want it returned, please print the address on the back of the photo. For more information, call the newsroom at 485-1234.