Democratic governor Ted Kulongoski and Republican challenger Ron Saxton will engage in their second debate of the general election season this afternoon over the airwaves of Oregon Public Broadcasting.

The debate, moderated by OPB's Christy George, will air live from 1 to 2 p.m. over KOPB (91.5 FM). It will be broadcast twice on OPB's television station, KOPB-TV, Channel 10, at 9 p.m. today and 1 p.m. Sunday.

Three youth advocacy groups are co-sponsoring the debate: Stand for Children, Children First for Oregon, and the Children's Institute.

None of the three third-party candidates for governor were invited to the debate. Those are Mary Starrett of the Constitution Party, Joe Keating of the Pacific Green Party and Richard Morley of the Libertarian Party.

Kulongoski and Saxton last debated on July 14, at the Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association convention near Mount Hood.
